

Join the Professional Development Committee and Students & Young Professionals Committee for the # 2024 Winter Book Club

Want to have a better grasp on your money? Read and learn with fellow CWEA members!

Get excited for San Francisco Bay Section's first book club of 2024! All participants will be asked to read The Psychology of Money, by Morgan Housel. After reading the book, participants will meet up to discuss the book. Questions will be developed to facilitate discussion.

The sign-up link included below will ask people to vote on a location and time. We're aiming to meet up in-person right after the holidays in January.

"Things that have never happened before happen all the time." -
